HCL CAMWorks announcement

HCL CAMWorks

HCL Software is announcing the intent to remove the purchase option for HCL CAMWorks Solids licenses and associated CAMWorks Solids USP subscription. CAMWorks Solids options and associated USP subscription are currently slotted to be discontinued starting October 1, 2023.

WHY IS HCL SOFTWARE MAKING THIS CHANGE?

With recent changes to the SolidWorks products, HCL will no longer be able to sell CAMWorks Solids as an OEM product under the HCL brand.

WHAT PRODUCTS WILL BE AFFECTED?

- CAMWorks Solids Parts Only
- CAMWorks Solids Parts & Assemblies
- CAMWorks Solids Part, Assemblies & Drawings
- CAMWorks Solids Parts Only upgrade to CAMWorks Solids Parts & Assemblies
- CAMWorks Solids Parts & Assemblies upgrade to CAMWorks Solids Parts, Assemblies & Drawings

WHAT ARE THE OPTIONS FOR CURRENT CUSTOMERS?

Existing customers with CAMWorks Solids license(s) currently have the following purchase options until September 30, 2023.

- Update USP for existing CAMWorks Solids licenses to a USP date of September 30, 2024
- Upgrade existing CAMWorks Solids license(s) to higher levels of CAMWorks Solids Parts, Assemblies & Drawings
- Purchase additional CAMWorks Solids licenses

WHAT ARE THE OPTIONS FOR NEW CUSTOMERS?

New customers may currently purchase CAMWorks Solids license(s) until September 30, 2023, and with a USP date no later than September 30, 2024.

WHAT BENEFITS DO CUSTOMERS GET BY RENEWING THEIR CAMWORKS SOLIDS USP?

Updating all CAMWorks Solids licenses to a USP ending date of September 30, 2024, ensures that CAMWorks Solids licenses will support CAMWorks versions 2023, 2024 and 2025.

WHAT HAPPENS IF CUSTOMERS DO NOT RENEW THEIR CAMWORKS SOLIDS UPS BY SEPTEMBER 30, 2023?

After September 30, 2023, any licenses of CAMWorks Solids not current on USP subscription will not qualify for future CAMWorks version updates or have upgrade options.

WHAT IF THERE ARE ADDITIONAL QUESTIONS?

Customers with additional questions should contact their CAMWorks reseller or email camworks.inquiries@hcl.com.
